

CHANDLER'S APPRENTICE

Actual experiences in virtual times.
An online workshop where guests make their own candles.

Guests learn the heritage craft of candle making and make a range of hand made, vegan, soy wax candles.

The candle making business is on fire at the moment, as an interest in self-care, home décor and room fragrancing flourishes. Everyone from top fashion houses to independent, artisan boutiques are entering the candle market.

We'll post out kits in advance of the e-event containing everything needed. Guests will receive a wax melter, wax, wicks, mould, tin, fragrance, colour and tools.

Hosted by our expert chandler in the virtual candle shop, guests will be guided through each step from preparing the mould and container, arranging the wick, melting the wax, adding dyes and fragrances, pouring the melted wax and removing candles from moulds.

Guests will make a fragranced container candle in a tin, a pillar candle in a mould as well as some some tea lights.

For an added teambuilding element we can arrange guests into teams and challenge them to come up with a name and brand for their candles, similar to a task seen on "the Apprentice". We can put them into break out rooms where they can talk privately with their team mates and then pitch their new candle range to the judges and the other teams.

At the end of the activity guests will have a beautiful set of candles to keep or give as gifts.

With plenty of quiz rounds to choose from there will something to suit everybody and we can even provide bespoke rounds that are personalised to the company or a particular theme.

We then ramp up to the physical "Task Master" rounds where volunteers are called upon to play practical games such as the "Super Ace Face Race" where participants race to manoeuvre a chocolate biscuit (or whatever they can find in the cupboard!) from their foreheads into their mouths, "Tear me a River" where guests attempt to make a picture by tearing a piece of paper or "Best Foot Forward" where guests use their imaginations to somehow make the best footprint.

TERRARIUM WORKSHOP

Actual experiences in virtual times.
An online workshop where guests make their own terrarium.

Guests join our expert plant geek and escape to his virtual tropical garden! Together we will then bring a bit of nature indoors by creating a “jarden” living garden in a jar!

We'll post out kits in advance of the e-event containing everything needed. Guests will receive a jar, gravel, soil, tools and everything they need to create their terrarium, as well as a selection of exotic plants.

After a demonstration and some fascinating facts about the history of terrariums and how they work, guests get their hands dirty!

Hosted by our expert gardener, guests will be guided through each step from planting techniques, how to build each layer and how to look after the terrarium afterwards so that the plants can thrive and eventually take care of themselves! They will learn how each layer contributes to the overall wellbeing of this self-sustainable eco-system.

We'll also give the playful guests among the group ideas on how to embellish their terrariums to create their own gardeners world! They can find things around the house such as mini figures or can go on a scavenger hunt on their daily walk to forage for mosses, pebbles and twigs.

Under the right conditions, a perfectly balanced closed terrarium could last a lifetime, making them a much more eco-friendly alternative to cut flowers. (The longest known terrarium has lasted on it's own for 53 years!)

At the end of the activity, guests can present their terrariums and, as an optional competitive element, we can judge a winner and send out a prize in the post.

Social interaction, mindfulness, escapism and de-stressing, team rebuilding, creativity, connecting with nature, relaxation, shared experience, eco-awareness, learning new skills, fun!
